I won't be able to look at these until Monday. Hopefully you can wait that long?

Subject: Draft Food Web Model Comments

Attached are the food web model comments. It is basically a compilation of comments from Larry and Jennifer with my own comments thrown in on the BSAFs. These need to go out tomorrow. Please review. I have included a handful of margin comments that lay out some of my questions to focus the review. I will be out of the office but Chip will take the lead in getting these out.

Thanks, Eric
